Chapter -3 ASSIGNMENT QUESTIONS

1. Why do you use javascript? Write a javascript program to calculate multiplication and division of two numbers provided by users.
2. Write a javascript to validate the form at client side where student roll number, sex and email fields are not accepted in blanks?
3. Create a form containing fields User ID, password and Cell Number and validate the form such that none of the fields are empty, password must be of at least six digits and cell numbers should only contain digits using javaScript.
4. Describe event handler in Javascript with example.
5. Write short notes on AMP, Server side scripting language and Static website.
6. What do you mean by event handler in Javascript? Write script to show it.
7. Create an HTML form for student information to enter marks in five students and write a javascript code to find total, average, result and grade.
8. What are the features of javascript? Write a javascript code to find factorial of a user input number.